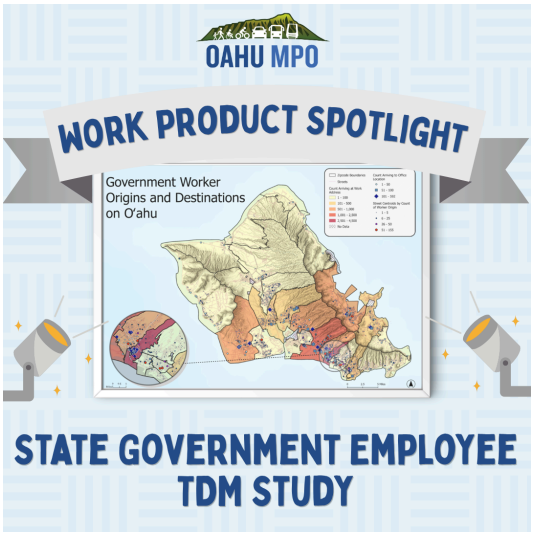
July 2026

Aloha & welcome to this month's OahuMPO newsletter! We're excited to share the latest updates on transportation projects, planning efforts, and community initiatives shaping the future of mobility on O'ahu.



The State Government Employee TDM Study surveyed more than 3,500 state employees to understand commuting patterns and identify strategies, such as transit incentives, telework, and parking management, to reduce drive-alone commuting and expand travel options.

For more study highlights, check out @OahuMPO.

She is interested in the intersection of architecture, graphic design, and urbanism to support community-centered design. Silvia contributed to the Imagine This series and is now supporting the development of OahuMPO's mascot. She also produces community maps and street-level diagrams in support of OahuMPO's planning studies. In her spare time, she enjoys urban sketching and visiting cafes.

Jayden Cascayan is a rising senior at Waipahu High School and is a part of the Sustainability Fellowship Program at Punahou School. He is interested in land use, community planning, public transit, and the impacts that car-oriented development has on our climate. Through this internship, he hopes to deepen his knowledge in urban planning while also gaining professional experience.

Janiah Yago
Punahou School

Janiah Yago is an incoming junior at Punahou School and is part of the Sustainability Fellowship Program. Driven by a desire to make our island a safer and better place, she is excited to contribute to our community as someone born and raised in Hawai‘i. When she’s not studying or interning, you can find her crafting and crocheting.

On June 29, 2026, the OahuMPO Policy Board approved the updated Title VI Implementation Plan. The plan explains how the OahuMPO ensures its transportation planning work is free from discrimination and provides equitable access for all communities. It outlines policies, procedures, monitoring, and reporting requirements that keep OahuMPO in compliance with federal civil rights laws.

Why is this exciting? As Skyline adds more stations and connects to places like the airport, it becomes easier for students, workers, and visitors to get where they need to go. The more places it reaches, the more people can choose to ride!

Even better, Skyline is ready when riders need it! Trains arrive on time more than 99% of the time.
